DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by LaFlamme (US Patent 5,957,755).

The device of LaFlamme meets the structural limitations of the claims including left and right parallel groove serrations (fig.19) and radiating groove serrations from a central point (fig.1).

Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Romagnolo (US Patent 4,044,439).

The device of Romagnolo meets the structural limitations of the claims including left and right parallel groove serrations (fig.1, 1, 6) and radiating groove serrations from a central point (fig.1, 1, 5). It is inherent that the device of Romagnolo is made of an alloy.

Claims 1, 2 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller (US Patent 2,144,986) or Curtis (US Patent 2,325,746).

The device of Miller or Curtis meets the structural limitations of the claims including parallel groove serrations (fig. 4).
